Description

It is solemn to reflect, in this day, on how the visible and the human are being used to supplant the invisible and the spiritual. Every art of the enemy, his profound skill and dexterity, his manysided and deeply laid plots, are all in requisition at this moment to destroy, if it were possible, and in any case, alas! to deteriorate and tarnish, every testimony to the reality and power of things not seen.

The earliest departure from this divine path of faith is recorded in Genesis 12, in the very same scripture which tells us of the call of Abraham 'out' from country, kindred, and father's house. Set free by 'death' (see Acts 7:2-4), 'glory' had its full weight with Abram; and very blessedly did he rise and go forth from every visible thing, as expressed by country, kindred, and father's house, 'into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance ... not knowing whither he went. By faith, he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a

Are you aware that the things you can see often supplant the invisible and the spiritual in your life? Satan tries to destroy, if it were possible, or to tarnish, every testimony to the reality and power of things not seen. This booklet gives clear warning of, the enemy's scheme and encourages us to cleave to the Lord Jesus, whom having not seen, we still love.
