

Sales price $8.95

Salesprice with discount

Description

Provisions for Brethren to dwell together in unity is taken from Psalm 133. If Christians had followed the practical admonitions of this Psalm as detailed by Larry Stassel, there would be far more God-honoring harmony in the Christian community.

Larry Stassel grew up in rural northern Wisconsin. He and his wife live in central Pennsylvania. Devoting much of his time to worldwide mission services, Larry travels to mission fields to encourage the workers and also visits assemblies in North America. PRIESTLY FAILURE & PRIESTLY PRIVILEGE, Samuel Ridout, a well-respected early 20th century writer, begins not with the failure of the people to maintain unity, but with the failure of the priesthood to maintain His order. The results were' most sad.

Samuel Ridout was born in Maryland in 1855. He served among the assemblies for over forty years. He followed F. W. Grant in the Editorship of Help and Food, and was associated with him in the work of the Numerical Bible. He wrote many books, articles, and Bible class lessons. He went to be with the Lord in 1930.

From the table of contents:

Introduction
Provisions for Brethren to Dwell Together in Unity
The Precious Ointment
On the Head, Running Down
The Dew of Heaven
Joseph and our Lord
Priestly Failure and Priestly Privilege

92 pages - Softcover - Authors: L. Stassel & S. Ridout