Description

"If so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you," Romans 8:9.

In the most simple unmistakable terms we have here the great essential of Christian blessing, "If so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you." A mistake on this point, therefore, is a mistake about the very vitals of Christianity. Pause, then, my reader, before we proceed. Face this matter honestly, and solemnly consider how you stand.

A real Christian is one who has received the Holy Spirit; and you are, this moment, really indwelt of the Holy Spirit, or you are not. Your body is actually the temple of the Holy Spirit, or it is not. And if not, wherein,
