Description

More than 1900 years ago, in exile on the island Patmos, the apostle John saw the Lord Jesus Christ in a way he never had seen Him before. The Saviour of the world is also the Judge of the universe, but first the Judge of the House of God, the Church, over which He is Head. No wonder that John fell down before Him!

The things written in the book of the Revelation are for the instruction today of those who subject themselves to Christ as His servants. Did you know that Revelation, which describes the coming judgments, also contains seven blessings? If you want to read this book and listen to its message, you will be blessed: "Blessed is he that reads, and they that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things written in it: for the time is near" Revelations 1:3.
