

Sales price $4.95

Salesprice with discount

Description

"The Wind bloweth where it listeth so is everyone that is born of the Spirit." These were the Lord's own words to a night-time enquirer, one who would later on receive that new life. This book, first in a series, explores the mystery of new birth and the nature of the new life in Christ.

117 pages – Softcover - Author: H. F. Whitherby