Description

Radio counselor and Bible teacher Bob George has helped thousands of tired, disappointed Christians rediscover the joy of living in grace. Now this companion study guide will help you establish the truths of God's liberating love firmly in your life. Question after question sensitively probes your understanding of every subject presented in the original book. Additional study materials help you grasp the significance of your identity in Christ.

Perfect for individual or group use, this study guide will help you to allow Christ to live His life through you. Return to Christ as the one source of your vitality and freedom.

Bob George, founder and president of Discipleship Counseling Services, is the counselor and teacher on "People to People," a daily biblical counseling program broadcast live via satellite on radio stations from coast to coast. Bob has authored numerous Bible study books and has a passion for communicating God's grace to hurting men and women.
