Description

God's plan of salvation spans the ages, in fact it stretches from eternity to eternity. It has been unfolded in a nutshell in a few Bible verses in Romans 8 (vv. 28-30).

But God's eternal purpose does not include all mankind, it aims at a special class of people, namely "those who love God". Who are they? They are His people, God's own children, born of Him and of His Spirit. They enjoy the divine promise, the divine assurance, "that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose" (Rom. 8:28)

Our assurance as Christians is based on the firmness of God's eternal plan of salvation for His own, as it is explained in the following verses of Romans 8 (vv. 29 and 30). This remarkable passage is the central theme of this study.
