

Sales price $8.95

Salesprice with discount

Description

When the inscrutable Person of the Son of God is assailed and dishonored by misunderstanding the Scriptures, or by misinterpreting the inspired text, or by even corrupting the Word of God, the attack must be met, and the assailants overcome with the sword of the Spirit, which never fails those who rightly wield it.

The author, Mr. Joseph Reader, was a missionary and Indian agent among the Cree Indians of northern Manitoba, Canada. He translated some of the New Testament Scriptures into the Cree language, seeking to minister to the spiritual needs of the bush Indians.

80 pages - Softcover - Author: J. Reader