Description

Many people are not sure whether a saved person can be lost again or whether once saved they are eternally saved. And as long as one is unsettled on this very important truth, doubts and fears are bound to hinder that soul's peace and happiness. In place of truth, man's enemy, Satan, presents wrong teachings, doubts, and reasonings. In the garden of Eden he raised doubts, saying, "Yea, hath God said?" Gen. 3:1. The Holy Spirit encourages simple faith - a prayerful and simple belief in the Word of God. Happiness comes by accepting a plain statement of Scripture which one can understand, and by not allowing it to be overshadowed by a passage that is difficult to understand. The Lord gave Peter a lesson on security. "And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me! And immediately Jesus stretched forth His hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?" Matt. 14:29-31.
