

Sales price $7.95

Salesprice with discount

Description

We cannot have power with men if we have not power with God. The greatest mistake any of us can make is to seek to have power before men without having been in the presence of God

The qualification for service is a deeper acquaintance with the heart of Christ

What will become of those cut flowers tomorrow? They will fade. So truth that is separated from Christ will fade away

Love for Christ is the mainspring of holiness

The charm of sin is gone the moment it is perpetrated

"A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." Proverbs 25:11.

And so, the reader will find these choice excerpts on a variety of subjects from the rich and precious ministry of men of God such as J. N. Darby, Edward Dennett, G. V. Wigram, and others. Young and old alike will profit from mediation on these short, simple yet profound statements of truth dealing with the believer's pathway through this world.

208 pages – Softcover - Author: Various Authors