

Sales price $3.95

Salesprice with discount

Description

"Are all my sins forgiven when I trust Christ?" asked Okalufu. "The blood of Jesus Christ cleanses from all sin!" the missionary replied. The man's face was beaming with the joy of new-found salvation. "I have been a great sinner," he said, "for, you see, I am a 'leopard man!'"

In this fascinating book, the leopard man named Okalufu, who was a cannibal, found the joy of sins forgiven and peace with God. Other stories from India, China and many other countries tell of the love of God to sinners.

64 pages - Softcover - Author: M. J. Tuininga