

Sales price $3.95

Salesprice with discount

Description

Mephibosheth was lame on both feet, his grandfather had been the unrelenting enemy of David, the new king, and his family had been virtually wiped out. But he found in David a king who acted graciously and who raised him to a position he could never have dreamed of. Charles Stanley, a noted nineteenth century evangelist, skillfully shows from this Old Testament incident the parallel with ourselves and how Christ has graciously received us when we were completely undeserving, and has transformed our situation entirely.

24 pages - Booklet - Author: C. Stanley