Description

These twelve letters are originally written by Mr. Dennett to a young believer for his encouragement and to establish him in the faith. Each letter deals with a separate subject basic to Christianity. The subjects are of such vital and abiding interest that they have been published in book form.

They are as follows: Peace with God – Our place before God – Our place on earth – The body of Christ – The Lord's table – The Lord's supper – The Lord Jesus Christ in the midst – The true place of worship – Worship – Ministry – The Word of God – Prayer.
