Description

In this short work Henri Rossier starts with the truth of the assembly in its widest aspects before writing about it in its local setting. He explains how the principle of the assembly - believers united in one body in the power of the Holy Spirit - is expressed in worship, prayer and edification as we let the Lord gather us round Him and lead us by His Spirit. This is how we realise His promise: 'where two or three are gathered together unto my name, there am I in the midst of them' (Matt. 18:20)
